MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

An armed posse of more than one hundred farmers hunted through the woods five miles from Middletown, N. Y., yesterday, for William Monroe, who is wanted for an attempt to murder six persons and for setting fire to the barn of Abraham Deyo, at Ireland's Corners, near New Platz.
Monroe, who is about 35 years old, is known as a hard citizen. He has served a term in prison for a minor offense. On the complaint of Deyo he was arrested some time ago for assault and had been threatening to get even. He selected yesterday afternoon.
Arming himself with a piece of iron pipe about an inch in diameter, he went to the Deyo farm and called Abraham Deyo to the door of the farm house. As Deyo stepped outside into the door-yard Monroe felled him with a blow of the pipe.

Mrs. Deyo, who saw the act, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jonathan Deyo, ran outside. Both women were knocked senseless by a blow over the head, and Monroe then struck Deyo several times.
A woman servant ran out and was felled. Leaving the senseless women and the man lying where they fell, Monroe went into the house. He smashed up the furniture, and finding a child sleeping in the cradle, tossed it against the wall.

Satisfied there was no one else in the house, he made his way to the barn, some distance away. There four men were pressing hay. Jonathan Deyo, the attorney, who had come up to visit his brother, was watching them work. Monroe called him to the front of the barn and struck him down. Monroe then took a handful of matches from his pocket, lighted them and tossed them into the loose hay.

The four men, who had come to the assistance of Mr. Deyo, stopped and tried to save the barn and the horses. In the meanwhile, Monroe made his escape. In a few minutes the barn was a mass of flames and the men had hard work to save the other buildings.
The reputation of Monroe as a desperate man, who had served a term in prison and who was considered a menace to the thinly settled community, caused the greatest indignation, and threats were made of lynching.
The outrage had been committed about 5 o'clock, and before nightfall Constable Charles Litz had gathered a posse, the members of which had volunteered to assist in the running down of Monroe. He had not been located at an early hour this morning.

A TRAGEDY IN PARIS.
Miss Winifred Parsons, the daughter of the late Charles Parsons, president of the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad. New York who died in 1904, was found dead with a bullet wound in her head yesterday in her apartment in the Avenue Iona, Paris. The police say that the case is one of suicide, while friends of the dead girl declare that the shooting was an accident. Owing to the desire of friends and relatives to give the tragedy as little publicity as possible, the affair at first appeared wrapped in mystery.

It was learned, however, that the girl had been suffering from melancholia since the death of her fiancé, a young Frenchman, Emile Maas, who died four months ago from consumption. Miss Parsons was found dead in bed at noon Sunday by a maid who entered the room with her breakfast. The girl's right hand clutched a revolver, a bullet from which had penetrated the brain.

OYSTER BEDS BARE.
Information has been received in Baltimore that the oysters on the dredging grounds known as the Tea Table, Lampe, and Middle Ground, in the upper Chesapeake bay, are dead, and the once prolific ground, where thousands of bushels of oysters were secured, is now a barren waste. A thorough investigation of the locality has just been made by a practical oysterman to find out what the prospects are for the coming season. A dredge was thrown overboard about a dozen times at each of the places named and only brought up shells and dead oysters.

It was stated that freshets and the dumping of mud on the oyster beds have been the cause of killing the large quantities of oysters that in past seasons have given profitable employment to hundreds of oystermen.

TO ABANDON KENTUCKY.

A story is published in Louisville, Ky., that the American Tobacco Company has withdrawn its 22 country buying agents from Kentucky. The announcement comes as a complete surprise to local tobacco men, and has caused quite a flurry among those interested in the situation throughout the State. Furthermore, it is known that the company intends to open up headquarters in Cincinnati. The rumor is that the company intends to entirely quit Kentucky. Officials of the American Tobacco Company decline to discuss the outcome of the move.

Louisville has for years been the largest leaf tobacco market in the world, thousands more hogheads of tobacco being handled on the local "breaks" annually than at any other point.

It is generally accepted that the numerous "Night Rider" troubles and the intense feeling which exists against the American Tobacco Company in many sections have caused the officials of the company to withdraw the country agents from the State.

CONTINUATION OF August Sale

FURS

1-3 to Nearly 1-2 Less Than Regular Prices.

Our August Special Sale of Furs will be continued during this week. Owing to requests, we have decided for this continuation, but it will positively close next Friday evening.

Every woman who is interested in furs will consult her best interests by examining this superb stock. It is an authorized five showing of rare and elegant furs, and offers unlimited possibilities of choice for the woman in search of a handsome fur piece or garment. In some instances the quantities are large, in others only one or two of a kind, thus insuring exclusiveness with little prices.

Nothing newer or better will be shown later when the season opens, as every garment, neckpiece, and muff was made up in advance styles to our special order, and we positively guarantee that every piece is exactly as represented.

In addition to made garments and pieces we are showing a collection of rare skins. If you prefer you can select the skins and style and have your furs made up to special order, and be given the benefit of the sale prices.

Included are Russian Sable, Ermine, Russian Mink, Eastern Mink, Black Fox, Black Lynx, Black Wolf, O. real, Russian Pony, Labrador Seal, Beasom Seal, Persian Lamb, and Real Seal.

We mention a few prices.
